Subject: Recommendation for Jason Michaels

Jason Michaels recently performed at Louisiana State University. His performance drew an excited audience expecting an entertaining and professional show. Over the course of the performance, Jason Michaels and his assistants delivered both. The incorporation of audience participation and humor while performing illusions made for a lively and interactive event for the students, faculty, and staff of the LSU community. Further, the preparation for the event was extremely easy from the initial contact to stage breakdown. The production requires minimal impact as Jason Michael and his assistants work in a very friendly and efficient manner. Overall, the event was greatly enjoyed by all those in attendance. I would highly recommend Jason Michael for his skill as an illusionist and his professionalism as a performer.

Sincerely,
