To Whom It May Concern:

Jason Michaels performed at our last TPAC Volunteer Luncheon and easily won over the crowd with his strolling magic and engaging personality. I have a wide variety of volunteers; men, women, seniors, and college students, and they were all fascinated with Jason's show. He is also extremely personable, professional, and easy to work with. I would definitely use Jason again and would recommend him to anyone planning an event who is looking for a unique and entertaining performer.

Sincerely,

Melissa Wilson
TPAC Volunteer Manager
